An efficient method for determining a price is to ship out a survey to your current customers. If these customers have already purchased an book from you, ask for their opinion in terms of price. Do this by creating a sales page for the new e book, but do not include a worth on that page. As a substitute, add quite a lot of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out prices by making a number of duplicate sales pages with different costs on each page. Make sure that your gross sales copy is precisely the similar on every page, and contains your selling-handle sentence. Then work out for every web page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and sales of your book. This will let you know what your optimum value is.

In the end, should you've written a book that solves a drawback or presents a new method, your book will usher in both site visitors and profits.
